

Shotgun Blast From Friend Wounds Youth

A shotgun blast, fired by a chum, wounded Jack Clement, 21, Toronto, at a cottage on Pine Beach, Lake Simcoe, Sunday. He is in Toronto General hospital, suffering from shot wounds in the side of his face and forehead.

Chief Constable William Hill, North Gwillimbury, has laid a charge of wounding with intent against Bruce Waldron, 20, also of Toronto. Chief Constable Hill said Clement was shot outside the Waldron family cottage after Waldron had refused entry to Jack Clement and four other youths.

Waldron was released on $1,000 bail after the arrest.

Clement and four other boys, Ronald Steers, Bill Dean, Ronald Hunkin, Toronto, and Buster Baker, Keswick, went to the cottage to borrow some tools to fix a car, according to one of the boys. Waldron and two others, William Chillum, Hamilton, and Kenneth McFarlane, Toronto, would not permit them to enter the cottage.

After rapping on the door, they went to the side of the cottage and banged their fists on the wall. Waldron was said to have opened the rear door and fired a 12-gauge shotgun in the air.

Clement and the others hid behind a hedge, later walked toward the cottage in full view of the occupants. A second shot was fired and Clement received the full blast in the side of his face. The four youths with him number six shells.

They were not hit by the pellets of the shotgun. Clement was taken to Dr. Winston Mahon, Keswick, and then rushed to York County hospital. According to the doctor, several pellets pierced his neck, narrowly missing the jugular vein. His eye was also injured.

"We had all chummed together during the summer and were good friends," Donald Steers said. No explanation has been given as to why Waldron shot at the youths. "He certainly wouldn't shoot anyone intentionally," his father said. "He always has been a good boy."

Complete 2,500 Mile Journey In 'Red Hot' 1928 Touring Car

Two young men, completing an unbelievable feat, returned home from Western Canada last week in a hot, steaming 1928 Chevrolet touring car. George Hatley, whose home is near King, and Peter Van Nostrand, Gornley, completed their 2,500 mile trip in a black and yellow chequer-board Chev. they bought in Edmonton.

They arrived at King last week with an engine red hot enough to boil eggs. Top speed of the vehicle was 35 miles an hour. The time was actually nine days; a breakdown in the U.S. caused by very hot weather and other problems held them up, so counting driving time, it took six days.

The machine needed water every 20 miles, they said, because of a leakage, but during the trip, they bought a new waterpump. They carried a large can of water, one of gasoline and two gallons of oil at all times as standard equipment.

The roof leaked, the doors would not lock and there was Successful candidate in the deputy-reeve election Monday was Herb Gladman who polled 776 votes with a large lead over the second candidate, Joseph Dales. Above, Mr. Gladman was photographed Monday night shortly after the final returns came in. Mrs. Steve Toczyski and Dorothy Smith, assistants to the returning officer, mark the final scores on the election board.

Murder Charge Laid Against Woman In Knifing Of Worker

A charge of murder has been laid against a 24-year-old woman over the death of a negro farm worker last Saturday in the Holland Marsh. Police laid the charge against Mrs. June Waters, wife of McKinzy Waters, a work foreman at Federal Farms. She is an expectant mother.

According to police, she plunged a knife into the back of Walter Coleman, 38, a Baptist church deacon from Tevelast, Florida, while he was fighting with her husband.

The incident took place near workers' living quarters in the newly developed part of the marsh, a short distance from the scene of another death a month ago. The body of a woman, Rhoda Rogers was found in the river after a Saturday night party in August in the same area.

Mrs. Waters had gone to the workers' camp with her husband on Saturday. Farm workers said that Waters was in an argument with Coleman about damage done to a company tractor. When the two men started to fight, Mrs. Waters walked from the car with a lettuce cutting knife and plunged it into Coleman's back.

An autopsy showed that the knife went almost through Coleman's body.

A farm laborer said the argument started over the tractor which had been taken from a locked garage to tow Coleman's car from a ditch. Waters was said to have accused Coleman of knowing who took the machine. Coleman denied any knowledge and the men started to fight.

Ponzy Bryant, a worker, said he had gone into a bunkhouse while they were talking and on coming out again, he saw them fighting. He said someone shouted that the woman had a knife. She had left the car and walked behind Coleman quickly and plunged the knife into his back before anyone could stop her.

Mrs. Waters is in hospital at present and it is not known when she will appear in court to face the charge of murder.

CONSIDER POULTRY IN TOWNSHIP LAW TO PROTECT HERDS

The council of East Gwillimbury township recently passed a by-law giving residents full authority to shoot dogs worrying sheep or dogs not under proper control and in the vicinity of sheep pastures.

In an interview by the Ontario livestock commission at the C. N. E., it was found that most sheep farmers took advantage of the livestock protection act to protect their herds from dogs. The act allows them to shoot dogs. The township by-law gives additional authority.

The township council has been considering protection through the by-law for poultry as well. One farmer also wanted to include rabbits. He complained that dogs had destroyed his purebred rabbits.

FRANK GAMBRILL

Mailman Retires After 34 Years, Equalled Many World Trips

"People are pretty much the same, old and young. The old stay young because they love the simple virtues of life. The young grow up fast because they are quick to recognize the idea of sharing responsibility, to sense kindness and courtesy." And Frank Gambrill should know.

For 34 years he has covered 30 miles on King rural route 3 every day, a total mileage which would have taken him around the world many times. He has used 10 horses and worn out about as many cars, and is carrying mail to the third generation of his patrons.

As the time draws near for his retirement, he values the friends he has made as the greatest reward for his labors. On this he will reflect as he puts away his garden and fixes things up at his home, tasks he has had little time for in the past. In addition to his route, he carries the mailbags to and fro twice daily from the post office to the C.N.R. mail trains, a contract which went with the route.

What his customers, the holders of 175 mail boxes, will remember is the familiar figure of their mailman, whose First World War disability gives him a painful limp, a man whose patience, even disposition and kindness has endeared him to them. They say he never grouches about the weather or roads, never complains about the nagging pain of his war affliction, and is always willing to do a good turn.

"It doesn't cost anything to help other people, besides I have been repaid a hundred fold in good will," declares the veteran. "Take the time when there was a movement to shorten my route. I petitioned all the patrons in that section and they stood behind me 100 percent to have the course unaltered. And take the late George Morning. He would bring me a jug of hot tea when I reached his place on wintry days. When I got stuck on the roads, all I had to do was to ask a farmer for help and he gave it gladly."

When Mr. Gambrill took the route over from Ralph Gilles in 1918, he did so with some apprehension. He was in poor health after his discharge from the army, but he was advised to take a job which would keep him out of doors as much as possible. For the first two summers his daughter, Hazel (Mrs. Earl Campbell) drove the mail while he had hospital treatment. Later for similar reasons, his son Veryl drove for him, and his wife has done her part accompanying him when the mail was heavy and the going hard.

Started With Horses
Mr. Gambrill drove horses for the first few years. In winter when roads were bad he drove a team. Often the only track was one broken by a cutter or sleigh. For days on end only fences would be seen and he would have to make deliveries on foot.

Mr. Gambrill recalls "old Mary" who knew the "names on the boxes", for she would refuse to pass by if there was no delivery. Mr. Gambrill used a foot-warmer, which was a carpet-covered box with an inside compartment for red hot bricks. The heat lasted for 12 hours. His first motor car was a model A Ford, and a good one at that. It didn't cost him any more to keep up the Ford than to board his horse.

When he first began his route it was 25 miles. Later, when it took in Eaton Hall farm and east of Temperanceville, it became 30 miles. His journey from King P.O. takes in the third concession, north to Mulock sideroad (Gamble), second concession through to King and Vaughan townline, on the townline, up the third, with some inner sideroads, and an area east of Temperanceville. During the time when convalescent sailors were at Eaton Hall, he would have 60 bags of mail for them over the Christmas tide. And at this time and catalogue time, he would make four trips from the C.N.R. depot to the office, to haul 50 and 60 bags. This meant a lot of handling for the old soldier. But friends were kind and help was offered.

Mr. Gambrill has one regret as he is about to retire: he will not be a carrier when the new post office is opened. He is glad the new accommodation will relieve the congestion of mail bags and sorting mail will not present such a problem during the busy seasons. He has worked under three McDonalds as postmasters, Mrs. John McDonald, her son Wells and now Mrs. Wells McDonald. He will leave the office with best wishes for his colleagues, Ernie Cummins, R. R. 2, and Bob O'Reilly, R. R. 1.

Relief accounts for August totaled $475.34 and general expenses $377.92.

STILL UNSETTLED

The matter of settlement in the dispute concerning the new Vivian sideroad allowance returned to the agenda at Whitechurch Township Council recently with the final result being that the clerk will have the township solicitor prepare an agreement as directed by council to offer the complainants, Ratcliff Bros.

Mr. Ratcliff in a communication to council stated that he was prepared to accept the sum of $300 for land timber being used in opening the surveyed roadway and would agree that the township might place stumps taken from the clearance projects on his bush property free.

Council maintains that they cannot pay Mr. Ratcliff $300 for property and trees that are the municipality's own property, but would be agreeable to giving this amount to be allowed to dispose of the stumps rather than bury them in the new roadway where they might cause future trouble.

Routine business formed the main agenda as councillors sized in ninety degree heat. An agreement was presented to council whereby joint council will represent the Townships of Whitechurch, Markham and King at the hearing of the appeal of North York Township against the county's equalized assessment figures.

Approval was also received from Markham Township giving approval for the issuing of $425,000 in debentures for the new high school to be erected in the Stouffville High School area.

Road accounts for the month totalled $9,843.02 which included a considerable sum for new culverts and rental of a bulldozer and scraper.

Council sanctioned the payment of a sheep claim amounting to $40 to Dr. R. W. Morningstar, 6th con., for one sheep killed by dogs and one sheep injured.

Relief accounts for August totaled $475.34 and general expenses $377.92.

Gladman's Poll For Deputy-Reeve Swamps Rivals

Electors who turned out to vote on Monday went all out for Herb Gladman who was elected new deputy-reeve for Newmarket. With 776 ballots in his favor, he was close to 600 votes ahead of the second candidate, Councillor Joseph Dales, who polled 207 votes.

In the special election to fill the deputy-reeve vacancy there were four candidates, Gladman, Dales, Lorne Paynter who polled 178 and Harry Goodman who polled 65.

It was not a heavy vote. Out of a possible 3,300 electors, 1,226 cast their ballots for a deputy-reeve. The new deputy-reeve ran against two members of council, Dales and Paynter. Harry Goodman, who has not served on council, has been a candidate for councillor previously.

The two councillors, however, will be allowed to hold their seats on council in spite of being defeated in the deputy-reeve election.

A ruling by the department of municipal affairs permitted them to be candidates for the election without giving up their council seats.

Herb Gladman, 66, is a retired Canadian National express agent. He was with the C.N.R. for 31 years in Newmarket. He is a veteran of the first world war; he joined the army at the age of 29 and saw much action overseas. He came to Newmarket following the war, as express agent and was also issuer of motor vehicle licences for 29 years, believed to be a record.

There will be a full council when sessions resume next week. Had one of the present members of council been elected deputy-reeve, there would have been a vacancy again unless another election were called to fill that vacancy.

The election Monday was called to fill the vacancy left by the death of J. L. Spillette. According to the municipal act, the mayor could have called an election 15 days after the vacancy occurred in June but it was not until the end of August that council decided to call for an election.

With this election over, Newmarket residents will be starting to think about the annual election for members of council which will be held in a little over two months time.

Good Majority Favors Main St. Project

By a majority of 109 in Monday's election, ratepayers in Newmarket approved of a by-law to authorize extensive work to the Main street. Voting in favor of the project were 507 ratepayers; 398 voted against it.

The by-law calls for widening and paving of Main St. and the rebuilding of sidewalks with installation of new services that are necessary.

Newmarket had been informed previously that the Toronto and York roads commission will pay the cost of laying the centre 25 feet of new roadway. According to estimates by the town engineer, the commission's share authorized by county council together with department of highways grants, will bring the cost to the town down to approximately $104,000.

During the summer Reeve Arthur D. Evans stated in council that payment for the project will require one mill on the general tax rate over a 15-year period.

After the project is completed, maintenance and responsibility for the street will be up to Newmarket. For many years, the Toronto and York roads commission has maintained the centre part of the road but it has been anxious to give up maintenance responsibility. Maintenance costs on the road in its present state have averaged $3,000 to $4,000 annually, according to the engineer.

Association Plans Restoration Of Historic Sharon Cemetery

The second meeting of the Sharon Burying Ground Association was held in the municipal hall at Sharon on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 13, 1952. This meeting was very well attended by representatives from East Gwillimbury council, Sharon, Newmarket and Toronto.

Dr. R. W. Bruels had been elected chairman of the association and presided at the meeting. Additional officers appointed were: secretary, Mrs. J. Trewhella; treasurer, Miss Helena Daley; convener of finance committee, Mrs. Margaret Hopkins; legal advisor, A. D. McFall.

Trustees appointed were Dr. R. W. Bruels, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Thomas Collins, Mrs. J. Trewhella, Edward Barker, Carl Vernon, A. D. McFall, and the president of the York Pioneers, W. E. Hanna, ex officio. The auditor will be the township auditor.

The restoration committee is composed of George Pearson, convener, Mr. McKeown, Edward Barker, Frank Tate, Sidney Milne, William Clark, Mrs. Bertha Phillips, Mrs. Margaret Hopkins, Mrs. Laura Barker.

A membership list was opened to which several immediately subscribed. The fee for annual membership will be $1 and for life membership will be $50. Friends are asked to remember this association in making their will. These fees are to be paid to the treasurer, Miss Helena Daley, 19 Victoria St., Newmarket.

An appeal from the association for contributions will be conducted by Mrs. Margaret Hopkins, Toronto. Those interested in the restoration of this burying ground are asked to make their contributions as generous as they can. The money will be used to set up a restoration fund and a perpetual caring fund; that of the latter will be deposited with the public trustee who, annually, will pay the interest earned by this money, to the trustees of the association.

The purpose of this association is that of restoration only; as a burying ground it dates from the early days of the 19th century. On the stones most of the inscriptions are in memory of those pioneers who cleared the land and settled in the Sharon district.

Work of the restoration has already begun. Through the generosity of the late John S. Smith of St. Catharines, and of H. R. MacMillan of Vancouver, a substantial and artistic fence had previously been placed around it. When the work of restoration will have been completed the members of the association feel assured that from the prominent position beside the highway and the natural contour of the site, this burying ground will be a permanent, respectful and attractive memorial of historical interest.

FEAR-PRITCHARD

Standards of white gladioli and candelabra formed a picturesque setting on Saturday, Sept.
20, in Trinity United church, for the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Barbara Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Llewellyn Pritchard of Newmarket, and Stanley Dalzell Fear, son of Mrs. Mary Carr Fear of Toronto. Rev. M. J. Aiken officiated and the junior boys' choir, under the direction of Mr.

fect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white bridal satin with jacket of Chantilly lace styled with stand-up Peter pan collar and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The full skirt, over crinoline, fell gracefully from drop pleats and extended into a short train. Encircling the skirt were two wide bands of lace applied on the sash. An original halo of softly braided tulle intertwined with pearls, held her fingertip veil of tulle illusion. She carried an all white cascade of gladioli, roses and stephanotis, centred with an orchid.

Miss Jack Pritchard, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Barbara Fear, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.
They were gowned alike in ballerina-length, strapless, white iridescent tulle taffeta over oli petals centred with deep pink

the Laurentians, the bride trav-

SAY RENTED HOUSES
IN WHITCHURCH ASSESSED TOO LOW

While no action was taken the matter of assessment was discussed at some length by Whitchurch Township Council on Saturday, and the general opinion of council was that owners of rented houses and cottages were much too lowly assessed for these premises.

It was pointed out that certain individuals in the Wilcox Lake area were making a "killing" in renting a number of these poorly constructed homes at fabulous rates and were assessed the same as an owner living in his own house.

"These people are making money out of these places and should pay higher taxes," declared Councillor McCarron. Council concurred in this view.

It was further stated that this basis of assessment is used in the City of Toronto. Identical dwelling may vary in assessment, the owner who is renting his place having an assessment of some six to seven percent higher than that which is occupied by the owner himself.

Figures revealed that some cottages at the lakeside were drawing rent which in one month amply paid the entire year's taxes

We took in the air show at the Exhibition Park in Toronto on Saturday afternoon and a thrilling spectacle it was. The Canadian built planes flown by Canadian flyers roared over the waterfront at speeds approaching those of sound, or performed intricate manoeuvres overhead. It was a noisy show as the roar of the jets echoed around the exhibition buildings, and sound of rocket fire racketed about. It was an impressive show, as any show of such power must impress.

We had taken the children believing they would be quite excited about the airplanes but that was a mistake. After the first plane had roared overhead, they lost interest and from then on, the afternoon was punctuated by a steady demand for "lucky elephant popcorn", for ice cream bars and hot dogs, and for balloons.

Mrs. Harry Brammer brought a touch of a vanished spring into the office on Monday. It was a branch covered with apple blossoms. The leaves on it were as fresh and green as they had been in the spring. The blossoms were from a tree in the orchard of her father, Jesse Lundy, at Cedar Valley. The tree, a St. Lawrence, had had its full quota of fruit during the season.

We were quite pleased and somewhat flattered to be referred to as the unofficial mayor of Newmarket in Master Joseph Dales' letter to the voters prior to the election. We hastened to the office of the official mayor, Joe Vale, and demanded of him the privileges that go with the office. The official mayor, understandably, was somewhat reluctant to share the platform at public functions but admitted that as unofficial mayor, we had some claim to this aspect of the mayoralty advantages. However, he insisted that if we were to share the fruits of the office, we must also be ready to share the trials. There were a few problems pending, he remarked, and he would be quite pleased to delegate their solution to us. He began to list them. The sewage disposal plant, next year's tax rate, cleaning up Fairy Lake. He paused to draw breath and we took advantage of it to quietly relinquish our claim and steal away.

Heavens, these are crowded days. Elections, buffoonery, and what not. Now, the office cat is in and beefing about the composers cutting his column. The only way to restore peace, we guess, is to loan the cat some of our space. Herewith, his learned comments upon his below-the-fold neighbor, Top Six Inches:

Here's one for old Top Sixie, my friend below. According to Country Life, published in England, modern psychologists studying animals, say that even cows have complexes, that they are by no means always bovine in temperament.

Dairy cows in particular, as any farmer will tell you, can be extremely sensitive to their human attendants, a medical psychologist writes. I wonder what good old Dairy Farmer's cows would think of his column. I am going to suggest that he read his column aloud every Thursday night out in the barn.

Being sensitive, particularly to their human attendants, Top Sixie's cows should be pretty good critics about what he writes. And since what he writes is usually about cows, they have a right to know.

This psychologist who studied animal neurosis says cows of refusal to let down the milk if they are upset. We suggest that Sixie read his column after milking rather than before, as he gets into some pretty loose talk about cows at times.

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-FIFTH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-TWO

ELECTION RESULT

The vote on Main St., if nothing else, should indicate to those members of council who asked for the vote originally, that the public accepts the cost of such undertakings as the price of progress, and that had the councillors more confidence in their own judgment, the vote need never have been taken.

There was a good deal of nonsense spoken, and accepted, on the rights of the voters to express themselves, to be taken into partnership with the council, and so on. Granted, the spending of $104,500 is not a matter to be embarked upon lightly. But the members of council generally were convinced that the work had to be done. They were put into office to make those decisions. There was no acceptable reason for them to dodge the responsibility of that decision; this moralizing about public rights was simply an attempt to rationalize a foolish act.

How could the public's rights be restricted by such a decision? The voter has adequate means through which to express his approval or disapproval of council action. The council would have needed municipal board approval before issuing debentures; the voters could have protested there. The voters could have protested at public meetings, through the paper (the two letters favored the work), and most important, they could have protested through the nomination meeting at the year's end.

The basic fact is that when members of council are elected to office, that approval carries with it a mandate to act on behalf of the voter. In short, they are hired to do a job for the voter. They are not doing that job when they dodge responsibility for a major decision.

'VOICE OF PEOPLE'

In his unsuccessful campaign for the deputy-reeve-ship, Mr. Joseph Dales issued a letter to the people in which he charged that "it is a matter of common knowledge that recently the affairs of Newmarket have been administered by an arbitrary minority who feel that the taxpayer does not possess sufficient intelligence to vote wisely on issues affecting our local social, economical or political status."

There was more of this sort of thing, a full page of it, and it includes unflattering references to the paper and its editor who is described as the "self-appointed unofficial mayor", the writer of "biased incoherencies" and a "buffoon". There is little point to mentioning this now; the voters have answered the letter quite adequately. At one point, however, Mr. Dales says that the editor believes this editorial page to be "the voice of the people". We should like to answer that.

At no time has there ever been any claim by the editor that this page is the voice of the people. Quite the contrary. This page is the voice of the editor and there have been a great many times when the voice of the people and the voice of the editor have been raised in conflict. This page was never intended to be the voice of the people; no good editorial page ever is.

The paper does provide the means for the individual readers who have opinions they wish to express through its letters column or through its news column. No one has ever been turned away from the use of those columns when his errand was legitimate. The readers of the Era and Express know that if their cause is honest, the columns of the paper are open to them.

But the editorial page remains an expression of the editor's opinion, no more, no less, and in that same editor's opinion, it is completely foolish to advance any other claim on its behalf.

USE CARE WITH GUNS

This week's paper carries a report of a gun accident in Whitchurch township when a young hunter was hit in the leg by a .22 bullet. In the Thunder Bay district where the grouse season opened on the weekend, a 14-year-old boy was shot through the head and a man was shot in the hip in two hunting accidents. It would seem that the hunting season is off to its usual start.

There is no more excuse for shooting accidents than there is for car accidents. Only the slenderest percentage of automobile accidents are caused by mechanical failure; the rest are caused by human failure of some sort. We would imagine that the hunting accidents are caused by mechanical failures even less. There is little that can go wrong with a gun but there is a very great deal that can go wrong with the judgment of the person carrying a gun.

Bad judgment in most cases is blamed on a lack of training and knowledge of weapons. The National Rifle Association of America has a membership of many thousands and that association has no record of any gun accidents. The reason is that its members are thoroughly trained in the handling of weapons.

Safety instruction may be obtained locally through gun clubs and on application for gun licences. Instruction is also given to students at Newmarket district high school. Gun licence applicants may receive proper instruction at Newmarket if they are interested, says Mr. R. C. Morrison, issuer of licences.

Here are some of the more important rules to remember when handling guns: always treat a gun as if it were loaded; never point a gun at anything you do not intend to shoot; never accept a gun from anyone unless it is proven, that is, with the action open; make sure of your target before you shoot, remember that a man with a khaki coat is often mistaken for a deer; if you believe snow or water to be in the barrel, don't shoot until the weapon is clear.

If you have any doubts about your weapon, take it to a local Lands and Forests officer for inspection.

PRESERVING OUR HISTORY

(Swift Current Sun)

The project by the provincial archivist, with the blessing of the Saskatchewan government, to microfilm the newspapers of Saskatchewan as well as old municipal records, deserves a hearty vote of appreciation. The work on preserving safely the history of Swift Current through the files of the Swift Current Sun and the ancient records of the city from village time, has already begun and will relieve the minds of many who are very interested.

Publishers of The Sun—and we know that is the case with hundreds of other publishers of weekly newspapers—without adequate facilities to protect their back files have lived in trepidation for a long time, fearful that some calamity would take forever the only historical records of their communities and districts which are or will be available. Now the project proceeds apace to have all of them in Saskatchewan done and the small rolls of films stored safely in the fireproof archives at Regina, where they will always be available.

The Legislative Librarian, Mr. Archer and the Provincial Archivist, Mr. Thomas, were both in Swift Current last week on the mission and The Sun found them a wonderful type of civil servant, vitally interested in the job they are doing, certainly a very necessary one.

Preservation of the accurate grass-roots history of this province, localized, will some day enable a story to be written which will be a highlight of this very civilization or era we have been privileged to live in. Future generations, with their atomic heat furnaces, jet transportation, pills for food and an altogether new vista of life and a different civilization altogether, will read of the struggles of the empire builders in this western province—and marvel that they did so much with so little, and carried on to make possible the atomic age they live in.

POLICE ACTION

(Christian Science Monitor)

A chaplain recently returned from Korea makes a scathing indictment of the phrase "police action" to describe the fighting there. That term is "the great lie of our day," he says:

"It is war! Serious, costly, deadly... but inconclusive. And with all the weariness, the heartbreak... that only war can bring."

Yes, it is war, all right. But the chaplain does a great disservice to the grim, lonely, and often bewildered men still fighting in Korea when he goes on to charge that it is war without meaning, necessity, or purpose. Too many people have said that, and it is a wonder they have not taken the heart out of the fighting men whose heroic actions through the past two years have said, "Thus far and no farther," to Communist aggression.

It is a war whose meaning lies in the fact that it is a police action—that is, a war fought in defense of law, on behalf of the civilized world, against the use of naked force to abrogate international agreements. Properly understood, the term "police action" in no way belittles the war or the sacrifices it demands. Actually it dignifies them; it explains them; it points to the eventual wiping out of all aggression by the collective enforcement of world law.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Some of my readers have questioned Slim Bliggens' background.

Wrote one reader, "Who is this character the cat writes of? Is he a foreigner? He sounds like a communist. Has he been checked up on?"

It so happened Slim was splitting wood one day last week behind his shack, preparing his winter fuel.

"You'd be better to get a bachelor apartment, closer to downtown," I said. "Then you wouldn't have to look after all this property, cut wood and shovel snow."

Slim leaned on his axe. "Nope. Wouldn't have no part of a town place," he said. "Besides, there's somethin' about ownin' yer own place, pride of possession, I guess."

"You mean you actually own this shack, out behind the railway tracks here? Why I thought you were just squatting."

"This here land is a heritage," said Slim. "Old James Lount Bliggens, me great grandfather, homesteaded this here property. Got it granted from the crown. It's been in the family for generations and I'm the sole survivor which got it."

Imagine that, I thought to myself. Here I had been thinking of Slim as a shiftless drifter who settled down in town for a lack of no place else to go, in particular. And all the time he is a pillar of the community; he's in a direct lineage with a stalwart pioneer family of our community.

I looked up some old copies of the paper and found out that some decades ago, the Bliggens family was loaded. The great grandfather had made his pile out of western land and built a big house. They were the real leaders of the social set in those days, the Bliggens were.

Down the Bliggens line, a ne'er-do-well of a son squandered the Bliggens fortune and left the family distraught with naught.

Brad was his name. He wrought ruin. Known as Brad the Cad, he plunged the Bliggens fortune into worthless stock and drank. He gambled his money. He gambled through night clubs and bars throughout the big cities and resorts.

Thus it was that the Bliggens fortune was frittered away. For years Bliggens has been a forgotten name. The survivors of the ruin wandered far and wide but Slim alone remains here a standing pillar of a once imposing, stalwart pioneer family.

Said Slim, recollecting the past, "Yo've got ter have a squandered fortune behind of you before you can really appreciate the delicate cultures of life and the real better things 't'which you can't buy. We Bliggens hung onto our taste fer life through it all."

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

The full effects of the foot and mouth disease on Canadian agricultural economy are beginning to be felt right now. In a week's time, the 26 cent floor price set for hogs previous to the outbreak of the disease will expire and the leaders of our industry, government officials and all will have a very hard decision to make. To lower the floor or entirely eliminate it would be a politically hard decision to make. Those who have seen pasture farms on the back concessions know that there are a lot of cattle in this country. A lot of them will have to be slaughtered this fall because there's probably not enough space to winter them, not enough feed to feed them and some are too heavy to go into winter feeding.

All this adds up to a glut on the market. Even a drastic lowering of meat prices won't be able to increase consumption to the point where all the surplus would be taken care of. It looks as if the sudden squall that swept over us might settle into a very heavy storm, destroying some of the economic gains that the farmer achieved the last ten years.

We cannot tell you what should be done. We have a very heavy surplus. We have an economy which has been set to produce under the stimulation of the last war and post-war period. The solution is export or storage at present prices, or else such a severe break in prices that it will slow down production to present demands. But the latter solution would probably not take effect until a year or two from now. And then undoubtedly a period of scarcity would follow.

It seems to us that at least some of our difficulties are due to our neighbors to the south. Not that they are doing anything on purpose to hurt us, but because they live an economic life of their own and having become dependent on their market, we find it difficult to get adjusted to it.

There is a boom and bust economy and they have a parity program to keep it on an even keel. Their country is so big that this is possible. Their climate is varied and when they are not spellbound with the world series, they are having elections. This makes their politicians assume that very peculiar gait which can be best described as walking with their ear to the ground.

The latter game, elections, will take precedence over all rhyme and reason. All this is their business and we wish them good luck in it, but we feel that it is time that some of our leaders stood up and said a few down-to-earth words to them. First, that embargoes and other measures like the repudiation of trade agreements is a thing that could cut two ways. While they had perfect reason to place embargo on our cattle while the disease was on, they only have political reasons to keep it on now. In the days when they were short of meat our beef was welcome. This hurt us because we had to pay very high prices and now we have an overextended production machine. They should see that they are responsible for this.

They should be told that there are items which could hurt them very badly if we put embargoes on them—fruits and vegetables and manufactured items. We should tell them that we are not nearly as dependent on them as they would like to think we are.

In other words, we should tell this overgrown boy south of the border, too big for its age and not as mentally grown up as physically mature, that it takes two for co-operation and we are tired furnishing election ammunition.

We don't suppose this will help us in our immediate trouble. It is our feeling that the government will take a kind of middle road attitude to keep some floor prices on, store some, and if it is really smart, it will find some export markets as well. In the meantime, we will keep paying with a hangover, for the beef binge that lasted four years. Good thing pink elephants don't depress the beef market.

From the Files of 25 and 50 Years Ago

SEPTEMBER 23, 1927

A serious train wreck occurred near Gormley last Saturday when a freight train proceeding south telescoped the rear of a second southbound freight that had stopped for repairs north of Gormley. The on-coming freight saw the motionless train ahead but could not stop. Ten freight cars were wrecked, killing Lorne Smart of Newmarket, a brakeman riding in the caboose of the standing train, and 14 head of cattle.

The annual plowing competition for York County, held under the auspices of the local Department of Agriculture, is now under way. There are classes for beginners and experienced plowmen with teams and tractors. Judging does not begin until November 2.

Beginning October 1 all vehicles must carry lights if travelling on the highway at night. All cars must display a rear brake sign approved by the Department of Highways.

Delegates to the General Synod of the Church of England, meeting in Kingston last week, were visited by the delegates of the United Church. Following the visitation the prevailing opinion seemed to be that there will be a union between the Anglican and United churches in Canada within the next few years.

SEPTEMBER 26, 1902

About 3 a.m. last Wednesday a train coming into town gave a fire alarm. Soon the whole town was astir. A bright light and volume of smoke indicated a fire had a good start. The whole line of oil sheds at the rear of the main business block were ablaze. The prompt arrival of firemen saved a huge conflagration. The fire is supposed to have started from rubbish in the lane near the rear of Allan's store, Messrs. Danford Roche and Co. are the heaviest losers, having a large stock of paints and oils stored in the sheds. Mr. G. A. Binns, Messrs. J. A. W. Allan and Co., and Mr. Joseph Millard are also losers to a lesser extent.

The new publication, "Historical Localities of the County of York" has been very liberally subscribed to by the representative people in each community. The information being collected and photos of Newmarket's old houses and the places of interest in each town make the book very interesting and its value will be enhanced in later years.

A report from Calgary states four inches of snow fell on September 20. Next day it melted, making the roads heavy.

Newmarket fall fair was a splendid success this year. There was a record attendance and the number of entries was higher than previous years.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

Congratulations, Boss! From correspondence we received this week, we learned you are now the "unofficial Mayor of our community". Will compliments and honors never cease to be heaped upon you?

First, you win a trophy for the best all-round weekly newspaper in this population group. Next, there's a couple of trophies for the best editorial page and now, to be named mayor of Newmarket... without even running for office.

Of course, the letter did state that this new honor was a self-appointed one. But don't let that detract from the importance and prestige of such a position. Many a candidate would be in office if he could be self-appointed. You merely need to read their opinions of themselves to know that they feel they, and they alone, are best suited for the position.

The letter went on to say that you were making a "buffoon" of yourself. Congratulations, again, Boss. We always like to hear about a man who is trying to make something of himself. So many these days are complacently content to remain as they are. But not the editor of the local press. He's going to be a buffoon. Mayors' Plov Matches.

No doubt there will be many responsibilities implicit in this promotion. The office of mayor, unofficial or otherwise, carries with it many heavy duties. Who knows, Newmarket may yet be represented in the plowing match open to mayors of Canadian municipalities. The contest judges wouldn't disqualify you, Boss. Just quote the councillor's words, "This self-appointed unofficial Mayor of our community..."

Yes, we can see where having two mayors could be a real asset to any town. When Mayor Vale can't see in a new building, Unofficial Mayor Meyer could hold him onto his shoulders or turn about. Adding the eyes and ears of the press to the voice of the town sounds like a comprehensive coverage for all future developments.

Tricks Or Antics? Webster defines "buffoon" as, "a man who makes a business of amusing others by tricks, antic gestures, etc." Getting elected without running for office? Yes, that's quite a trick. It won't be long before the Democrats and Republicans hear about this. Maybe even the Liberals will be interested. That was quite a landslide in New Brunswick this week.

panions, through the following days until their recapture, the dailies were filled with the story. Every "angle" was explored.

There were sob stories about their wives, their childhood training, their past exploits. There were graphic descriptions of conditions at the jail. There were factual accounts of the police efforts towards their recapture. There were allegations and counter allegations, as to the honor and trustworthiness of the guards. Only one approach was missed. No women's editor announced the event in the Social and Personal columns. Perhaps such an item would have read: "Following a week spent with the hunt in North York, Mr. E. A. Boyd has returned to his Toronto residence on the Don. Mr. Boyd was accompanied on his sojourn in the country by fellow 'rod and gun' enthusiasts, Steve Suchan, Leonard and William Jackson. A civic reception was held for the party upon their arrival in Toronto when many dignitaries, both provincial and municipal, were present. However, their return being rather unexpected by their friends who are also in residence on the Don, celebrations were limited."

That should be the last possible angle on the Boyd case. Oh, no. We forgot. There's the comics.

STEVENS—ANDREWS On September 13, Trinity United church, Newmarket, was the setting for a double ring ceremony in which Shirley Ruth Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Andrews, Newmarket, became the bride of Robert Harold Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Welly Stevens, Sharon.

Rev. M. J. Aiken performed the marriage. Mr. Norman Hurrell was organist and Miss Patsy Dunn was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in nylon tulle over taffeta skirt and a strapless bodice which had a fitted lace jacket with long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. A matching lace head dress held her finger-tip veil of nylon tulle and she carried an all white cascade of roses, mums and gladioli.

Miss Betty Shand was maid of honor, wearing flame nylon over pink taffeta with matching stole and poke bonnet and mittens. Mrs. Raymond Sherrard and Miss Marilyn Wrightman were bridesmaids, attired in cinnamon nylon over cinnamon taffeta with stoles and matching poke bonnets and mittens. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Carol Simmerson, dressed in flame nylon over pink taffeta, fashioned with sweetheart neckline with poke bonnet and mittens to match.

Supporting the groom was Mr. Raymond Sherrard as best man, and Messrs. William Hopper and James Stevens as ushers.

The reception was held in Trinity United church where the bride's mother received in a taupe gown with velvet trim and brown accessories and a yellow corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother, dressed in a brown gown with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the reception, the bride donned a grey suit with green accessories for their trip to eastern Canada and the United States.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

A school of sports thought, that has developed since our nearly pointless efforts in Olympic Games track-field, would eliminate our competition therein until such time as we develop athletes of a calibre, reasonably certain of points, and meantime, devote our funds to sending forth trap-shooters, paddlers, boxers, in which diversions we might show to better advantage.

It's a sound practical thought, all right, but though it makes no difference, I don't agree. The view-point can't very well be disputed, if you adhere to coldly practical grounds. There's a sentimental side to it. Every country doesn't send track-field winners to the Games. Indeed, such entries are limited to a very few nations. And it would be putting the final killing blow on the ambitions and hopes of young Canada if the Olympic standards were set so high, in the Trials, that practically none could make them. There must be some sporting tolerance in these things, and the goal of Olympic competition and, perhaps, Olympic victory, must be kept alive for the future, even if we haven't done so well in the last couple of Games.

The Olympic goal must remain, beyond the Empire Games. So we must in Canada reach a compromise between the practical and the sentimental in our Olympic outlook. Shall victory be the only consideration, with none but reasonably certain winners sent to the Games which would mean reducing the team to non-existent proportions, or shall we maintain the attitude that the Olympics are a goal worth retaining, but that if victory is not achieved, then the competition itself has been worth while?

We must take either attitude or abandon the fruitless endeavor to distinguish between the two in a world where athletic success becomes the hall-mark almost in the grade school with little or no toleration for lack of it. Perhaps the attitude would change if Baron deCoubertin's thesis was hung on every school-room wall.

When he succeeded in restoring the Games, back in 1896, Baron deCoubertin wrote: "The important part in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part in them, just as in life the most essential thing is not so much to conquer as to have fought well!"

Nations greater in population than Canada didn't fare so well in the Olympics track-field competitions. There must be heart-breaking and disappointment in many nations, as fond hopes were dashed, by amazing performances that sent former records rolling brokenly into the past.

So let's look ahead. We've had a Kerr, a Williams, a McNaughton, a Sherring, a Hodgson before. Why not again?

Your comments and suggestions for this column will be welcomed by Elmer Ferguson, c/o Calvert House, 431 Yonge St., Toronto.

With perfect weather, but a slow track, the boy and gal athletes of Aurora High held their annual track and field championship on Monday, the first at the new school, and the 27th consecutive meet. Lynn Easterbrook, winner of the Doo-little trophy for 1951-52, runner-up last year for the senior crown, romped home an easy winner in the boys' senior division with a 39-point total. "Cy" broke the record for the senior hop-step-and-jump set by his old rival, Ross Linton, in 1950. Lynn went 39 feet 8 1/2 inches, over a foot further. Easterbrook's closest rival was Don Busby, a former Doo-little winner, but his task was made easier as Ron Geddes, the school's intermediate titleholder, who is quite the promising young athlete, was unable to compete because of illness.

The mile was a regular riot as Coach Frank Gregoire made all the football team enter as an eligibility test for the team and some of the gridiron boys had a real tough assignment following the heels of Grand Snow who took the event in fine style. George Vrana, promising young baseballer, proved he could toss anything round equally well by throwing the discus a distance of 118' 4" to again better a mark set by Ross Linton in 1951. Vrana was a good 12 feet further.

Jim Preston, Bill Wray and Herbie McKenzie respectively won the intermediate, junior and juvenile crowns. All three were outstanding, young Wray bidding fair to equal the exploits in the future of his older brother, Bruce Wray, now in the R.C.A.F. Nancy Beekwith moved up to senior to annex her third straight school sectional championship. She was pressed to the limit, however, by Shirley Wright who was but three points in the rear.

A family affair was apparent in the intermediate and junior girls as Carol Busby won the intermediate crown, and Barbara Busby took the junior championship. Don't forget that older brother Don was runner-up to Easterbrook in the senior boys' section, making the family mantle at Kinghorn crowded with awards. We think this the first time in the history of the school for two members of a family to win championships.

With no inter-school meet to shoot at, the affair lost a little of its glamor, and the crowd of spectators was smaller too, the jaunt to the south-end of town, in place of Aurora town park having its effect. It will take a year or two for the cinder track to reach its best, so that the present track records are likely to remain steady for a while.

One by one the old records are falling as youthful technique and training, if not natural ability, improves. Easterbrook's hop-step-and-jump mark, for instance, bested that set by Bill Jelley of Newmarket in inter-school competition back in 1939.

When cork was scarce, fishermen in the Great Lakes used to use the thick outer bark of the base of old balsam poplars as floats for their nets.

To A Pair Of Pitchers

Your Hashman either has to do an eerie meenle mo this week or offer two Hashman awards and Roxy Theatre passes. No one, not even this trained observer (ouch), could sort out the best pitching effort on the softball fronts over the past week.

How can a fellow pitch one hit ball and lose? you may ask. Well, Ken "Red" Mitchell, the pride of the Mounties, did that Monday night as his mates failed to hold up their end. Mitch was terrific, fielding, batting and pitching his head off. That's our one award nominee.

On the other hand, how can we overlook Ron Kester's effort last Friday that led to Pine Orchard dropping off the ladder. Ron gave up seven hits to be sure but could have thrown left handed and still won the way he was cuffing the apple. His big bat scooped seven runs across the plate and that's why we're naming Mister Kester co-winner with Ken Mitchell.

Lake Rivals Tied In Final

All roads will lead to the Newmarket fair grounds Friday night as Zephyr Blues and Mt. Albert meet in the third game of the Lake Simcoe softball league final series. Game time is 8 p.m. Should a fourth and fifth game be required to declare a champion and Stan Cook trophy holder, they will be played at the fair grounds Monday and Wednesday of next week.

MOUNTIES EVEN SERIES

Scoring runs in every innings and taking full advantage of five Zephyr errors, Mount Albert put an 11-4 win on ice Wednesday to even the series at a game each. Doug Simpson, Mountie third sacker, hit a two-run homer in the third to make it 5-1. In the following stanza, hits by Kelly Case, a pair of walks and Hal Watts' two-run single put the Mounties up 8-1.

That effort got Blues' strongman, Ron Kester, off the rubber and brought in Bill Thornloe to complete the pitching. Thornloe walked three and three Zephyr errors set up a one-run fifth and two-run sixth to polish off Mount's scoring.

BLUES WIN FIRST

When a hurler chucks one-hit ball and loses, you can bet your last dime there's something wrong somewhere. And that somewhere — as Mount Albert lost the first game of the Lake Simcoe finals to Zephyr 3-0 at the fair grounds Monday, was right down Mountie infield stations.

While Coach Joe Case fumed on the sidelines, the Mountie infield committed five disastrous "rocks". These bobbles staked the Blues to the tie win. Barring the bobbles, the series opener was strictly a pitchers' duel between the Blues' Ron Kester and Mounties' Ken "Red" Mitchell.

Mitch gave up only one hit, to Zephyr's sharp fielding second-sacker Ches. Lunney. Ches, lined a 3-2 pitch down the center. Ron Kester was terrific too. He had the Mounties out of his hand and permitted only two hits. Ken Mitchell got the first and veteran outfielder Charlie Green was the other swinger.

ZEPHYR IN FINALS

Ron Kester was a very busy fellow at the fair grounds Friday. In fact, Ron was so busy with his war club and his right whipper that it led to the ouster of Pine Orchard from the Lake Simcoe softball league semis. Zephyr Blues won a 12-5 decision to knock out Harry Brammer's Pine Orchard whizzers.

Benefit, Show For Injured

The injury jinx took a couple of solid socks at our senior ladies' softball team over the past season. Coach Charlie VanZant lost the services of two of his regular keystone players, Phyl McInnis and Jeanne MacDonald, during the crucial stage of the P.W.S.U. playdowns. Plans are now complete to stage a benefit floodlight game at the fair grounds Saturday evening at 8.30 p.m. to take care of the bills in connection with the injuries.

Oshawa Junior ladies, who won the Oshawa town league championship and got through a couple of rounds in the P. W. S. U. playdowns, will provide the opposition for the local ladies. VanZant, Ruthven and company are hoping to close their season on a winning note with a win over the highly touted visitors.

Oct. 14 is another date to tuck away in your bonnets for future consideration as Stoney Cooper, Wilma Lee and their troupe of Western stars of station WVA, Wheeling, West Virginia, will be at the Newmarket arena for a two-hour all-Western show. Proceeds from this event, less expenses, will go towards covering the expenses of our two injured lady softball players.

Storage Takes Lead

Dealing themselves a big hand of base hits Queen City Storage steam rolled to a 14-2 win over Ditch Diggers Monday to forge a 2-1 lead in the best of five Aurora Town League finals. Home run blows by Jack Andrews, Grant Winters and Harry Sutton, plus run scoring hits by Jimmy Emmons and Andy Closs paid off for the winners with five runs in the first and six in the fourth.

Norm Stunden, who opposed Mickey Sutton on the mound, turned in another creditable pitching chore as he set down the Diggers on six hits. Diggers did get around to scoring a run in the third to break the shut-out spell and added run two in the fifth and punched home two in the sixth before darkness interrupted their plans of a last ditch rally. Ken Wright was the Diggers number one hit asset. He got to Stunden for two hits. Harold Stephenson, Grant Dawson, Earl MacDonald and Ray White punched the base hit button for one apiece.

Aurora Wins Title

Aurora Legion won the North York Midget Baseball League championship Saturday. Behind onehit pitching by Geo. Keroff, Aurora downed Lowell Waller's Little Giants 6-2. In the start off game of the title series, run off in tournament fashion, Newmarket trimmed Richmond Hill 13-5.

Little doubt Geo. Keroff's onehit effort was the highlight of the afternoon. Fred Bennitz's single in the seventh spoiled the no hitter. Bennitz got himself rubbed off seconds later as the Aurora infield clicked on a double play. Aurora got three runs in the third on one hit by Jim Hammond, Newmarket errors, two walks and a hit batsman. Aurora added insurance markers - two in the fifth on Herb McKenzie's single and one in the sixth on Geo. Keroff's solid safety. Aurora parceled six hits off the combined offerings of Grant Morton and Don Thoms as Geo. Keroff backed his pitching with two hits and Jimmy Hammond was the other two-hit man. Little Giants counted their initial tally in the fifth without benefit of a hit and Bill Forhan's walk and Bennitz's hit set up the other in the seventh.

PIN-UPS VS MOUNTIES

Rain Thursday and Tuesday interrupted the efforts of Newmarket Pin-ups and Mount Albert to conclude their Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies Softball League final series. The Pin-ups will entertain the Mounties tonight (Thursday) at the Fair Grounds in the fourth game in their best of seven set. Game time is 8.30 p.m. Mounties lead the series 3 games to 0 and need another victory to claim their third straight title. Geo. Watt and company are bound they'll stop the Mountie rush to the title tonight.

Grudge Bout Tonight

A grudge match between Red Garner and John Logan will feature tonight's wrestling card at the arena. Fans got more than they bargained for recently as Red Garner and Joe Greenfield, losers in the final tag team bout, took a fall out of referee Logan on the way to the dressing room.

It was quite an exciting exchange before six husky chaps liaising in one direction and an equal number pulling the other way ripped the "over-time" grapplers asunder. Logan, who is some shakes as a grunt and green artist, immediately hurled the challenge that he'd tear Garner limb from limb if he could get him in the ring. Well, he gets aforesaid Mr. Garner in the ring tonight so look out for the fireworks.

Rounding out the card will be a team match and a preliminary bout. New prices have been set, $1.00 ringside, 65c anywhere else in the arena.

SIMCOE JR. LOOP

Rain Thursday and darkness Monday halted the best of three Belhaven vs Keswick series for the Lake Simcoe junior men's softball league title. Belhaven leads by one game. The teams will rush through two games tonight (Thursday) at Belhaven and tomorrow, Friday evening, at Keswick in an endeavor to get a champion declared before the end of daylight saving.

WINS LITTLE GIANTS' RADIO

Art Newman of Queensville won the radio in the draw conducted by the Newmarket Little Giants baseball team. Draw was made Saturday at the Fair Grounds. Winning ticket was No. 100. Coach Lowell Waller and manager Eddie Pitt wish to thank all who purchased tickets and aided in the campaign to raise funds for the Little Giants team.

Plan Gridiron Season

Fred Speer will unveil his 1952 edition of the N.H.S. senior gridiron corps this week in an exhibition game with Pickering College. Three gridiron squads, senior, junior and bantam, will carry the N.H.S. football message to the North York faithful. Fred Speer is coach of the seniors, Geo. McNally the juniors, and Mike Steele the bantams. Two 12-men intramural crews will round out the football activity. The intramural games are scheduled to open this afternoon (Thursday).

To date, only two teams are definite starters in the North York secondary schools football conference. They are Newmarket and Frank Gregoire's Aurora double-blue. Alliston is being approached.

To A Pair Of Pitchers

Your Hashman either has to do an eerie meenie mo this week or offer two Hashman awards and Roxy Theatre passes. No one, not even this trained observer (ouch), could sort out the best pitching effort on the softball fronts over the past week. How can a fellow pitch one hit ball and lose? you may ask. Well, Ken "Red" Mitchell, the pride of the Mounties, did that Monday night as his mates failed to hold up their end. Mitch was terrific, fielding, batting and pitching his head off. That's our one award nominee.

On the other hand, how can we overlook Ron Kester's effort last Friday that led to Pine Orchard dropping off the ladder. Ron gave up seven hits to be sure but could have thrown left handed and still won the way he was cuffing the apple. His big bat scooped seven runs across the plate and that's why we're naming Mister Kester co-winner with Ken Mitchell.

Lake Rivals Tied In Final

All roads will lead to the Newmarket fair grounds Friday night as Zephyr Blues and Mt. Albert meet in the third game of the Lake Simcoe softball league final series. Game time is 8 p.m. Should a fourth and fifth game be required to declare a champion and Stan Cook trophy holder, they will be played at the fair grounds Monday and Wednesday of next week.

MOUNTIES EVEN SERIES

Scoring runs in every inning and taking full advantage of five Zephyr errors, Mount Albert put an 11-4 win on ice Wednesday to even the series at a game each. Doug Simpson, Mountie third sacker, hit a two-run homer in the third to make it 5-1. In the following stanza, hits by Kelly Case, a pair of walks and Hal Watts' two-run single put the Mounties up 8-1.

That effort got Blues' strongman, Ron Kester, off the rubber and brought in Bill Thornloe to complete the pitching. Thornloe walked three and three Zephyr errors set up a one-run fifth and two-run sixth to polish off Mount's scoring.

BLUES WIN FIRST

When a hurler chucks one-hit ball and loses, you can bet your last dime there's something wrong somewhere. And that somewhere — as Mount Albert lost the first game of the Lake Simcoe finals to Zephyr 3-0 at the fair grounds Monday, was right down Mountie infield stations.

While Coach Joe Case fumed on the sidelines, the Mountie infield committed five disastrous "rocks". Those bobbles staked the Blues to the win. Barring the bobbles, the series opener was strictly a pitchers' duel between the Blues' Ron Kester and Mounties' Ken "Red" Mitchell.

Mitch gave up only one hit, to Zephyr's sharp fielding second-sacker Ches. Lunney. Ches, lined a 3-2 pitch down the center. Ron Kester was terrific too. He had the Mounties eating out of his hand and permitted only two hits. Ken Mitchell got the first and veteran outfielder Charlie Green was the other swinger.

ZEPHYR IN FINALS

Ron Kester was a very busy fellow at the fair grounds Friday. In fact, Ron was so busy with his war club and his right whipper that it led to the ouster of Pine Orchard from the Lake Simcoe softball league semis. Zephyr Blues won a 12-5 decision to knock out Harry Brammer's Pine Orchard whizzers.

Benefit, Show For Injured

The injury jinx took a couple of solid socks at our senior ladies' softball team over the past season. Coach Charlie VanZant lost the services of two of his regular keystone players, Phyl McInnis and Jeanne MacDonald, during the crucial stage of the P.W.S.U. playdowns. Plans are now complete to stage a benefit floodlight game at the fair grounds Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. to take care of the bills in connection with the injuries.

Oshawa junior ladies, who won the Oshawa town league championship and got through a couple of rounds in the P. W.

S. U. playdowns, will provide the opposition for the local ladies. VanZant, Ruthven and company are hoping to close their season on a winning note with a win over the highly touted visitors.

Oct. 14 is another date to tuck away in your bonnets for future consideration as Stoney Cooper, Wilma Lee and their troupe of Western stars of station WYVA, Wheeling, West Virginia, will be at the Newmarket arena for a two-hour all-Western show. Proceeds from this event, less expenses, will go towards covering the expenses of our two injured lady softball players.

Storage Takes Lead

Dealing themselves a big hand of base hits Queen City Storage steam rolled to a 14-2 win over Ditch Diggers Monday to forge a 2-1 lead in the best of five Aurora Town League finals. Home run blows by Jack Andrews, Grant Winters and Harry Sutton, plus run scoring hits by Jimmy Emmons and Andy Closs paid off for the winners with five runs in the first and six in the fourth.

Norm Stunden, who opposed Mickey Sutton on the mound, turned in another creditable pitching chore as he set down the Diggers on six hits. Diggers did get around to scoring a run in the third to break the shut-out spell and added run two in the fifth and punched home two in the sixth before darkness interrupted their plans of a last ditch rally. Ken Wright was the Diggers' number one hit asset. He got to Stunden for two hits. Harold Stephenson, Grant Dawson, Earl MacDonald and Ray White punched the base hit button for one apiece.

Grudge Bout Tonight

A grudge match between Red Garner and John Logan will feature tonight's wrestling card at the arena. Fans got more than they bargained for recently as Red Garner and Joe Greenfield, losers in the final tag team bout, took a fall out of referee Logan on the way to the dressing room.

It was quite an exciting exchange before six husky chaps hauling in one direction and an equal number pulling the other way ripped the "over-time" grapplers asunder. Logan, who is some shakes as a grunt and groan artist, immediately hurled the challenge that he'd tear Garner limb from limb if he could get him in the ring. Well, he gets aforesaid Mr. Garner in the ring tonight so look out for the fireworks.

Rounding out the card will be a team match and a preliminary bout. New prices have been set, $1.00 ringside, 65c anywhere else in the arena.

Aurora Wins Title

Aurora Legion won the North York Midget Baseball League championship Saturday. Behind onehit pitching by Geo. Keroff, Aurora downed Lowell Waller's Little Giants 6-2. In the start off game of the title series, run off in tournament fashion, Newmarket trimmed Richmond Hill 13-5.

Little doubt Geo. Keroff's onehit effort was the highlight of the afternoon. Fred Bennett's single in the seventh spoiled the no hitter. Bennett got himself rubbed off seconds later as the Aurora infield clicked on a double play. Aurora got three runs in the third on one hit by Jim Hammond. Newmarket errors, two walks and a hit batsman. Aurora added insurance markers — two in the fifth on Herb McKenzie's single and one in the sixth on Geo. Keroff's solid safety. Aurora parceled six hits off the combined offerings of Grant Morton and Don Thoms as Geo. Keroff backed his pitching with two hits and Jimmy Hammond was the other two-hit man. Little Giants counted their initial tally in the fifth without benefit of a hit and Bill Forhan's walk and Bennett's hit set up the other in the seventh.

PIN-UPS VS MOUNTIES

Rain Thursday and Tuesday interrupted the efforts of Newmarket Pin-ups and Mount Albert to conclude their Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies Softball League final series. The Pin-ups will entertain the Mounties tonight (Thursday) at the Fair Grounds in the fourth game in their best of seven set. Game time is 8:30 p.m. Mounties lead the series 3 games to 0 and need another victory to claim their third straight title. Geo. Watt and company are bound they'll stop the Mounties' rush to the title tonight.

SIMCOE JR. LOOP

Rain Thursday and darkness Monday halted the best of three Belhaven vs Keswick series for the Lake Simcoe junior men's softball league title. Belhaven leads by one game. The teams will rush through two games tonight (Thursday) at Belhaven and tomorrow, Friday evening, at Keswick in an endeavor to get a champion declared before the end of daylight saving.

WINS LITTLE GIANTS' RADIO

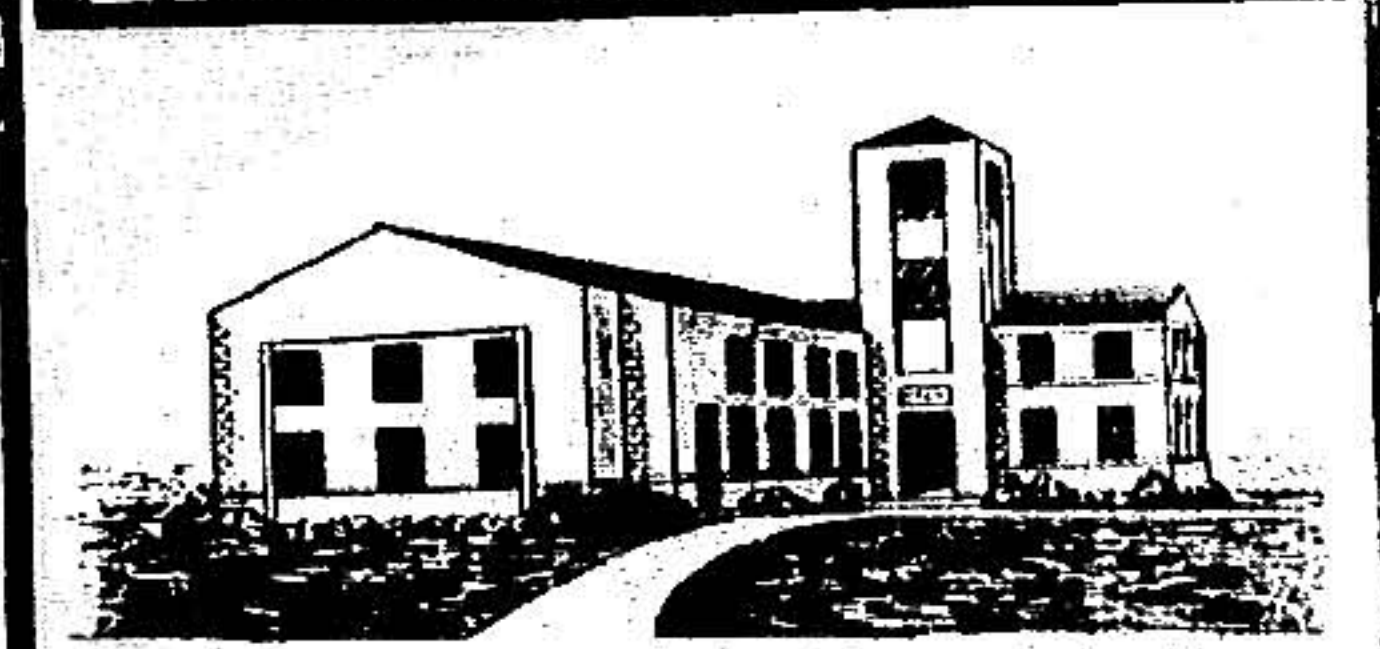

Art Newman of Queensville won the radio in the draw conducted by the Newmarket Little Giants baseball team. Draw was made Saturday at the Fair Grounds. Winning ticket was No. 160. Coach Lowell Waller and manager Eddie Pitt wish to thank all who purchased tickets and aided in the campaign to raise funds for the Little Giants team.

Plan Gridiron Season

Fred Speer will unveil his 1952 edition of the N.H.S. senior gridiron corps this week in an exhibition game with Pickering College. Three gridiron squads, senior, junior and bantam, will carry the N.H.S. football message to the North York faithful. Fred Speer is coach of the seniors, Geo. McNally the juniors, and Mike Steele the bantams. Two 12-men intramural crews will round out the football activity. The intramural games are scheduled to open this afternoon (Thursday).

To date, only two teams are definite starters in the North York secondary schools football conference. They are Newmarket and Frank Gregoire's Aurora double-blue. Alliston is being approached.

Council Report

complaints from several members of council to the effect that little or no improvement had followed from the arrangements made for dog control being taken over by the society. Mayor Rose said he had seen no improvement and that his own garbage tins had continued to be turned over by dogs on the loose.

The Humane Society's official pointed out that he had taken over only as recently as the middle of August, but he personally had been patrolling Aurora for two days in each week. He understood that the requirements concerning dogs on the leash and under other control had ceased under the present by-law, which operated only during the summer months and asked for instructions.

It was pointed out that dogs proving a nuisance could still be picked up. Councillor Jones said the present by-law should be amended and made applicable throughout the year. Deputy-Reeve Murray expressed the opinion that there should be no hesitation to report dogs that were proving a nuisance.

Councillor Murray said that those who had persuaded council to sign the contract with the North York Humane society (Col. Dann and Mrs. Fielding) should appear before council and show what Aurora had got for the money spent, an opinion shared by Councillor Tucker and some other members.

Arena Problems
Reverting to the letter from the arena board, a lengthy discussion took place on whether the suggested ditch should be laid in. Councillor Murray said that the expense of trying this out, as a means of getting rid of the water, would not be considerable and he was in favor of it.

Councillor Corbett said he had been assured on what he believed was a good authority that the water was the result of springs in the interior of the building. Councillor Jones expressed the opinion that it would be a waste of money to put in an open ditch. Councillor Davis agreed.

Councillor Corbett suggested that a surveyor's report might prove helpful, whereupon Councillor Jones remarked that they had an arena commission to look after the rink and he wanted to know why they did not get on with the job themselves.

Councillor Corbett said it was the same old story! The arena board waited until the fall of each year and then they got busy bringing these matters up which should have had attention in the spring of the year. "It's the same old story," said Mr. Corbett, "always too late."

It was finally agreed to place the matter in the hands of the property committee, to put in a ditch and try it out.

Dual Appointments

Reporting for the sports and publicity committee, Councillor D. J. Murray again raised the question of whether it was good business for one man to look after the arena and the recreation commission. Stating that he did not want newspaper headlines to be made of the matter, Mr. Murray said he was of the definite opinion that the arena manager would do a better job if he were responsible for the arena only. He considered that one man should handle recreation business and arena work be restricted to the arena manager.

Deputy-Reeve Murray held the view that it was too late to make different arrangements for this year. Furthermore he considered Aurora was too small a town to employ two managers. The two jobs went well together, he considered.

Councillor Tucker agreed that Councillor Murray had made a good point, but the problem was very difficult and the town could not employ two men for the jobs.

Councillor Corbett said that the former director gave his main time to the rink in the winter and in the summer managed the recreation work. Councillor Jones said that the two boards should get together and work out their own plans.

Following the discussion, Councillor Tucker presented to council the financial report of the arena committee.

Other Business

Councillor Davis asked when the council chamber was to be provided with a picture of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, and was informed by the town clerk that the matter was receiving attention.

Councillor Corbett indicated to council commendations he had heard of the town's police force and members expressed their pleasure and agreement.

A proclamation concerning the reversion to standard time on Sunday morning, Sept. 28, was announced.

Reeve Cook introduced a Aurora Banner on the winning of a trophy and other seconds and thirds in the provincial and national competitions for C. W. N. A. newspapers.

(Incidentally, the Era and Express and Aurora News Page has won no less than three trophies during 1952, for the best editorial pages and other weekly newspaper distinctions. One of these trophies was the Aurora Banner "Excellence" trophy, won on its first year, a victory which the Aurora Banner withheld from its readers. Ed. A. N.P.)

Council adjourned at 11.15 p.m. For a further review of council proceedings, please see "Council Sidelines" in next week's issue of this newspaper.

critic of arena board inaction; of the out-of-line hydro wall and building; of what he described as poor management on the part of a former waterworks committee. Arising out of his criticisms of the latter he was appointed chairman of the committee, and he made a successful job of it. He has been a critic of planning board proposals that interfered with the rights of the taxpayers.

When the former mayor put a ban on the press in regard to examining the minutes of council after each meeting, Councillor Corbett, along with some other members of council, made his protests sharply heard and the oppressive ban was removed. He has always defended the free rights of the taxpayers. He is in the fullest meaning of the phrase, a people's representative.

Saturday, September 27, will witness a family celebration. Married to Miss Reba Wilkinson of Macell's avenue, Aurora, on that date 30 years ago, the Corbetts have a family of one son and three daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett and family are members of Trinity Anglican church.

Since February, 1931, Cliff Corbett has been employed in the Aurora post office and there must be few who are better known to the people of the town than he. He admits, however, that changes that have taken place during those more than 21 years have brought to the wicket many faces unfamiliar to him. Be that as it may, innumerable good wishes will attend the Corbett family on Saturday next, among them the good wishes of this newspaper. May they continue to enjoy good health and good fortune.

RECTOR OF TRINITY WRITES

Editor: Aurora News Page:
May I have space in your paper to express briefly my regard for the community in which I have lived for the past four years; a community from which I am now moving, with much regret.

We were given a warm welcome when we came here, and found it very easy to get acquainted. We have felt the same warm and friendly spirit throughout our stay. Our children have enjoyed a good life at our schools, and I believe that they have had excellent opportunities for development. The work of the Recreation Commission is remarkably good.

Of great interest to me has been the continued effort of the part of Church people to co-operate in community affairs. We are all much concerned about our denominational divisions. Here, people are making a good effort to work and worship more and more as children of one Father. The past four years have been happy ones for us. We shall always hold a spot in our hearts for Aurora and district.

Sincerely,
K. D. Whatmough.

SEEM STRANGE to be putting anti-freeze in your car now? Actually it's the thing to do. Some drivers use it as a coolant all year round. Anti-freeze has a higher boiling point than water, yet when the cold comes it's a protection against freezing. You can get protection right down to 62° below with C-I-L Ethylene Glycol Anti-Freeze.

FAMILY PICNICS are fun when you can all hop into the car and drive to out-of-the-way spots easily. Lions Auction Sale

On Tuesday, Oct. 7, King City Lions will conduct a monster auction sale in Memorial Park at 7 p.m., the proceeds for community activities. A major part of Lions work is with boys and girls and since organization in May, the King City club has sponsored transportation of boys and girls to the Thornhill swimming tank during vacation months; organized a softball league in the Temperanceville-King City-Strange district; provided transportation to nearly 50 boys when they visited Maple Leaf Stadium on Sept. 2.

Mr. W. B. Atkinson, Stouffville, an outstanding auctioneer, will donate his time to the sale. A countrywide house-to-house canvass is being carried out by Lions in preparation for the event. The area will include the village, east to Temperanceville, and north 2 1/2 miles, west to the 6th concession and southward from the village.

Contributions in garden or farm produce, fowl, food, and any useful and saleable articles will be gratefully received. Each contribution will be numbered and tallied. A draw on turkeys will be made, one to the donor of article and the other turkey to the purchaser of goods. No admission to park will be charged and there is plenty of parking

"I put away my hard-earned money"

This young bank depositor recently wrote to his bank manager:

"I made a goal of $1,000 for this year. It is two years since I opened the account with two dollars. I owe thanks to you that I put away my hard-earned money where it will benefit me... I do not wish to touch it for the time being."

Building up a bank account means work and sacrifice. But Canadians know the value of having savings handy in time of opportunity or need: they maintain 7 1/2 million savings accounts in the chartered banks—almost twice as many as ten years ago. At the same time bank staffs have almost doubled. That, and higher wages, have increased bank payrolls almost three times.

More people use the banks, more people work for the banks than ever before.
